PRESS RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Woodstock Video Expovision '75 in August

From Tuesday, August 26, through Saturday, August 30, Woodstock will be the site of a statewide video festival featuring the work of video artists and journalists.

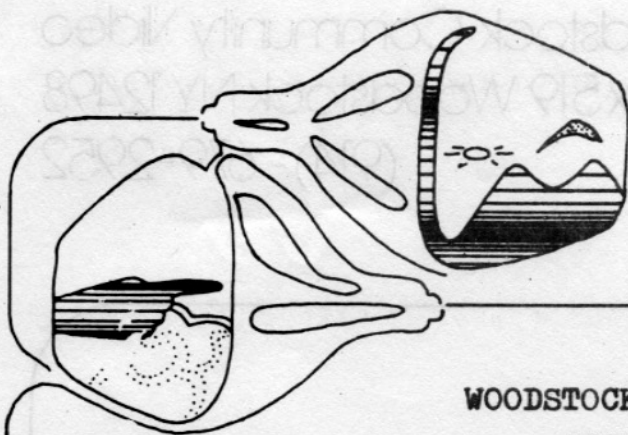

Two Woodstock arts groups, the Artists' Cooperative and Woodstock Community Video, Inc., with partial support from the New York State Council on the Arts, are sponsoring the event which will take place at the Artists' Cooperative Gallery at Parnassus Square near the center of town.

Woodstock Video Expovision '75, as it's called, will include continuous daytime showings of approximately 25 hours of tape submitted by some 50 artists. Evening video theatre events are scheduled among which will be a lecture-demonstration on video synthesizers, a multi-media happening, and a forum on the present and future of the medium.

The Woodstock town cable TV channel will feature special programming of the festival during the week. A body of work made available through the New York State Creative Artists Public Service program (CAPS) will be showcased and feature the work of past years' grant recipients.

Most events are free to the public. A schedule of showings, events, and additional information can be obtained during the festival at the Gallery or by contacting Woodstock Community Video, Box 519, Woodstock, N.Y. 12498, (914) 679 2952.
